

Year 6 Literacy Homework

Due in Friday 23rd November 2018

Apostrophes – re-write these sentences into your homework book with apostrophes to show contraction or possession.

1. Arthurs mum cant get the stain out of his school trousers.
2. Becky wouldnt say whether or not she knew what Charlottes birthday surprise was.
3. Darrens iPod was found by the tall policeman, who hadnt seen one before.
4. Eve didnt think that the monkeys cage was big enough for them all to share.
5. Freds dad, the peoples champion, made his way to the ring.

Colons – re-write these sentences into your homework book with a colon in the correct place.

1. Queen Elizabeth is monarch of many countries England, Scotland, Wales and Northern Ireland.
2. Rick Stein uses a lot of fish in his Cornish restaurants for a good reason they're right by the coast.
3. Sally's favourite word was stupendous when something is amazing or tremendous.
4. Keen car-fan Tim's family knew exactly what to buy him for his birthday driving lessons!
5. Ursula's travels took her to many locations around the world Seattle, Moscow, Madrid and Canberra.

Semi-Colons – re-write these sentences into your homework book with a semi-colon in the correct place.

1. Julie called helplessly into the night no-one answered her desperate plea.
2. Kevin was in a rush to get to work on time his car hadn't started this morning.
3. Leanne strained her eyes as she looked out of the window something was out there.
4. Micky came to a sudden realisation this wasn't the train who was supposed to be on.
5. Naomi couldn't believe her ears had she really just been offered the job?