

Year 6 Literacy Homework

Due in Friday 26th October 2018

Can you believe it?! I've done it again.

I sat down and wrote a paragraph for a science fiction story, just like the ones you have been writing this week, but gosh! I've made so many mistakes! In fact I've made ten! I mean it's ALMOST like I'm doing it on purpose!

Can you help me out? Re-write my paragraph into your homework books and try to correct all 10 mistakes I've made – they might be spelling errors, punctuation errors or general grammar errors.

Thanks for your help!

Mr Harper 😊

The container opened slowly. From inside, I could barely see two purple hands, grasping and clutching for something to hang on to. They finally found their way to the edge of the box and heaved the enormous body of the alien out. and a hush fell over the crowd – they couldn't believe what they were seeing. A broad, spiky torso covered in matted, dank, red hair appeared, with an oval-shaped bluish head resting precariously on top. at this moment, the crowd (who were starting to panic, started to flee the playground, but I was frozen to the spot. The creature – which I now had to concede must be an extra-terrestrial, stared intently into my eyes for a few moments, before letting out a high-pitched scream and vanishing back into the box from whence it came. At last the rigour of terror had passed, and I fled at once.
