

Year 6 Maths Homework

Due in Friday 14th December

Line graphs – study this line graph carefully and answer the questions below:

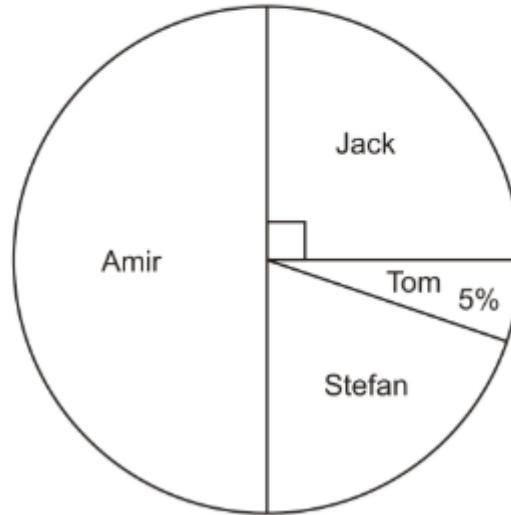

1. What were the highest and lowest temperatures recorded?
2. Between which two hours was the biggest increase in temperature?
3. Between which two hours was the biggest decrease in temperature?
4. What was the range of temperatures in this study?
5. What was the mean, or average temperature in this study?

Pie Charts – study this pie chart carefully and answer the questions below:

40 children predicted who would win the boys' race at sports day.

This pie chart shows their predictions.

1. Place the children in order from who got the most predictions to who got the least.
2. How many people predicted that Jack would win? How do you know?
3. How many people predicted that Amir would win? How do you know?
4. How many people predicted that Tom would win? How do you know?
5. How many people predicted that Stefan would win? How do you know?