Jennie has seven £10 notes in her savings. How much money does she have altogether?

Claire has 9 building blocks. Each block is 2 cm long. If she lays them end to end to build a wall, how long will the wall be?

Tom has some coins in his pocket. He has a 2p, a 5p and a 10p. How much money does he have altogether?

Katie has a box of dominoes. Each domino is 5cm long. If she lays 6 of them end to end, how long will her domino track be?

There are 7 days in one week. How many days are there in two weeks?

David was counting the lamp posts that he walked past. On the first street, there were 7. On the second street, there were 12. On the final street, there were 6. How many did he count altogether?

George timed 50 minutes on a clock. Every 5 minutes, he put a conker in a jar. How many conkers were in the jar when the time ran out?

How many toes do eight children have altogether?

There are 3 wheels on a tricycle. How many wheels would there be on 5 tricycles?

Rachel had £35 in her purse. She spent £20. How much did she have left?