

1.

Positive or negative	Reasoning
One mark for the following answer: <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Negative</li></ul>	One mark for any of the following evidence: <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Use of the word 'fears'</li><li>Use of the word 'hostages'</li></ul>

2.

Example of alliteration	Reasoning
One mark for the following answer: <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>"critical crossroads"</li></ul>	One mark for any of the following reasons: <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>To make the phrase to stand out</li><li>To explain how important the current moment is</li><li>To explain that depending on choices made, things could get better or worse</li></ul>

3. One mark for the answer "enjoy PE lessons"

4. One mark for any answer that recognises that just because young people like computer games, doesn't mean that they don't like sports or other social activities

5. One mark for the answer "personification"

6. One mark for the answer "integrates"

7.

Optimistic or pessimistic	Reasoning
One mark for the following answer: <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Optimistic</li></ul>	One mark for any of the following reasons: <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>He sees positive changes that have already been made</li><li>Predicts increased participation in the next 2/4 years</li></ul>