

Summer 1-Week 2

English 2.1: reading comprehension.

Read and answer.

English 2.2: adverbials.

Read and complete to the best of your ability. Remember if you have any doubts you can always read the SPAG help on the blog, ask a grown up or ask me.

English 2.3: fronted adverbials.

Read and complete to the best of your ability. Remember if you have any doubts you can always read the SPAG help on the blog, ask a grown up or ask me.

English 2.4: commas after fronted adverbials.

Read and complete to the best of your ability. Remember if you have any doubts you can always read the SPAG help on the blog, ask a grown up or ask me.

English 2.5: writing.

Read 'London goes wild' (reading comprehension) and pay special attention to the beginning of each paragraph. How could you improve the text adding fronted adverbials? Rewrite the first sentence of each paragraph.

Maths 2.1: telling the time (12h analogue clock).

Read and answer as you go. You can draw your own clocks.

Maths 2.2: telling the time (12h analogue clock)

Read and answer. Remember you can refer to 2.1 as needed.

Maths 2.3: telling the time (digital and analogue)

Read and answer as you go. You can draw your own clocks.

Maths 2.4: telling the time (digital and analogue)

Read and answer. Remember you can refer to 2.3 as needed.

Maths 2.5: using a.m. and p.m.

Read and answer. Remember you can refer to previous learning.

Science 2: digestive system functions.

Read and answer. Remember you can check the text again as needed.

History 2: Vikings.

Read and give it your best. Enjoy and be creative when designing your own poster. Think of other posters we have created at school.

Geography 2: water use.

Read the presentation and use the poster to think. Looking at your water usage survey, how could your household help reduce unnecessary water usage?

RE 2: the Qur'an

Read the text and write down the Quran's three most important features. Think about what it is and how it is used.

French 2: my favourite ...

Use the French mat to write 4 sentences about your favourite animals.

Remember you can always use a French dictionary to help you as needed.